Council Members are expected to:

- a) Attend regularly scheduled meetings of the Alumni Association Council;
- b) Act with diligence, honesty, good faith, and in the best interests of the Association; and
- c) Recruit General Members to participate in the projects, events and services of the Association.

Council Members should disclose to other Members all perceived conflicts of interest. If a Member feels they are unable to participate ethically in any discussion, vote, or otherwise offer their opinion in an unbiased manner, the Member should withdraw from discussion. Council Members secluding themselves from discussion as a result of conflict of interest shall be noted in the meeting minutes.

Article 6: Meetings of Council Members

6.1 Convening Meetings of Council

A meeting of the Alumni Association Council may be convened by the Chair, Vice-Chair, or any two Council Members at any time.

6.2 Place of Council Meetings

The Alumni Association Council may hold its meetings wherever it determines, including meetings via teleconference and online audio/visual technology.

6.3 Regularly Scheduled Meetings

The Alumni Association Council shall meet no less than quarterly (once every three months) during their term in office. The Council shall establish a schedule of regular Council meetings each year. A copy of any date and time of regular meetings of the Council shall be sent to each Council Member forthwith after being passed and no other notice shall be required for any such regular meetings. The proposed agenda, and materials pertaining to the proposed agenda, will be sent electronically at least one (1) week in advance of the meeting, but failure to do so shall not invalidate the meeting.

6.4 Attendance at Council Meetings

In addition to Council Members, attendance will be open to General Members, but may be closed if the Council is dealing with details it deems to be considered in-camera using its reasonable discretion. As the Council's primary resource, the senior staff representative is expected to attend all Council meetings.

6.5 Quorum

The quorum for Council meetings shall be the smallest whole number that is not less than fifty (50) percent of the Council Members then in office.

6.6 Chairperson of Council Meetings

The Chair, or Vice-Chair in their absence, shall act as Chairperson of the Council meeting. The Chair and Vice-Chair will be elected from amongst the voting Council Members at its first meeting following the Annual General Meeting for a term of 1 year, up until and including the following Annual General Meeting, but otherwise not to exceed their existing term.

6.7 Procedure at Council Meetings

The rules of procedure at Council meetings shall be those described in the most recent edition of Robert's Rules of Order.

6.8 Ineligibility

The office of a Council Member shall automatically be vacated if the Council Member:

- a) Misses more than 1/3 of regularly scheduled meetings of the Alumni Association Council, without adequate notice (7 days);
- b) Misses three (3) consecutive meetings of the Alumni Association Council;
- c) Ceases to be a General Member of the Association;
- d) Submits a written resignation; or
- e) Upon death.

A Council Member who misses a meeting due to illness, weather, or otherwise informed absence (for example, vacation), shall not be recorded as an unexplained absence or inadequate notice.

If there are fewer Council Members than the number of Association positions available, the Governance Committee shall seek additional candidates to fill the remaining positions. These members shall be referred to as Acclaimed Members. Acclaimed Members shall be appointed for a term up and including the next Annual General Member meeting, at which point the Acclaimed Members will be presented for confirmation through a vote as described in Section 4.9. Acclaimed Members shall be considered acclaimed once presented by the Governance Committee to the Association, and approved via a majority vote amongst the Association. The Governance Committee Chair will vote in the event of a tie.

6.9 Removal from Office

A Council Member may be removed from office prior to the normal end of the term of office if a resolution is passed by at least two-thirds (2/3) of the votes cast at a Meeting of General Members. Notice of any of the meetings provided for above must specify the intention to pass such a resolution. The Council Member sought to be removed shall have a right to be heard at the meeting.

6.10 Inclement Weather/Hazardous Conditions

In-person scheduled meetings which are impacted by inclement weather shall be cancelled. If there is a pressing issue that must be voted on, this shall be done by way of email, phone call or virtual conference call within 24-48 hours of the cancelled meeting.

Article 7: Committees

The Council may from time to time constitute committees to assist the Council Members in carrying on the affairs of the Association. The Council will prescribe the duties of such committees. These committees report to the Council. At its first meeting following the Annual General Meeting, the Council will appoint a Chair and at least two additional Council Members for each of the following standing committees from amongst the Council Members:

- a) Engagement Committee;
- b) Finance Committee; and
- c) Governance Committee.

In addition, the Council may strike ad-hoc committees from time to time to address and focus on new initiatives and/or issues as they may arise. The Council will develop terms of reference for all committees to outline their respective duties in further detail. If a committee cannot reach a decision on a matter, for whatever reason, the committee will delegate that decision to the Council as a whole.

7.1 Engagement Committee Terms of Reference

The name of the committee shall be the Ontario Tech Alumni Association Engagement Committee, hereinafter referred to as the “Engagement Committee”. At the highest level, the purpose of the Engagement Committee is to engage alumni and undergraduates through Networks, mentorship programs, various communication materials, communication technologies, and events. Additionally, the Engagement Committee will recognize alumni through its yearly awards program. Specifically, the Engagement Committee will:

1. Conduct an annual awards program that recognize outstanding alumni.
2. Develop and support alumni Networks nationally and internationally.
3. Encourage alumni to participate in the mentorship program and engage undergraduates in mentorship opportunities.
4. Assist the Alumni Office with the coordination of alumni receptions.
5. Develop and publish a bi-yearly alumni magazine.

The Engagement Committee shall consist of but not be limited to three Council members. At the Association’s first meeting of the fiscal year, the Council will appoint the Engagement Committee Chair. The Committee Chair will oversee the activities performed by Committee members and act as the official spokesperson on behalf of the Engagement Committee. General members may volunteer to be on the Engagement Committee.

7.1.2 Nomination Process for Homecoming/ Alumni Day Chair (when applicable)

1. Alumni Association Council, in and amongst themselves, will seek a Homecoming/ Alumni Day Chair Position. In the event an appropriate Homecoming/ Alumni Day Chair is not found, the Alumni Association Council in conjunction with the Alumni Office will conduct an open recruitment and accept applications from Alumni who are interested in the Homecoming/ Alumni Day Chair Position.

2. Alumni Office will encourage Alumni Association to suggest Alumni to be nominated
3. Applications received will be reviewed by the Engagement Committee and will be evaluated based on answers of skills sets and experience that are provided and/or evaluation tools to be determined.
4. Upon review of applications, the Engagement Committee will propose a minimum of 3 (three) and a maximum of 10 applications (dependant on submissions of Alumni) to the Alumni Association Council for a vote to decide who will be selected as Homecoming/ Alumni Day Chair.
5. Engagement Chair will contact the selected Homecoming / Alumni Day Chair to inform them that they were the successful candidate and confirm acceptance of position. Should the Homecoming / Alumni Day Chair no longer be interested, the position shall be offered to the Engagement Chair.

7.2 Finance Committee Terms of Reference

  - b. Appoint the Nominations Officer in March of each year, external to the Council's membership, to oversee the nominations and elections process leading up to the end of the Election Period each year.
  - c. Actively promote nominations through maximizing overall diversity, faculty, and class in seeking nominees
  - d. Conduct interviews of AAC nominees in order to gauge suitability for council
    - i. The structure and organization of the interviews will be created by the Governance Chair and approved by the Governance Committee as a whole
  - e. Recommend slate of candidates running for Council to the AAC for presentation and approval at the Annual Meeting of General Members
  - f. Recommend nominees for appointment to the AAC for vacancies that occur between Annual Meeting of General Members , due to reasons outlined in Section 4.11 of the Terms of Reference

The Governance Committee shall consist of a minimum of three members. At the first meeting of the year, Council will appoint a Governance Committee Chair.

The Governance Committee may elect a sub-committee for the nominations and elections process described in Section 7.3, sub-section 6 ("Nominations and Elections Sub-Committee). Nominations and Elections Sub-Committee shall consist of up to six General Members, not standing for election within the same calendar year, of whom, three members are Council Members as described in Article 2: Definitions. The Governance Committee Chair will vote in the event of a tie.

The Elections sub-committee (or Governance Committee if no sub –committee is struck) shall assist in the Elections process as defined above in Part 6 of section 7.3 The term for Council shall be from July 1st to June 30th of each two- year term, allowing time for the date and notice of the Annual General Meeting to occur.

Article 8: Networks

8.1 Sanctioning of Networks

Any group of alumni may apply to the Council to associate as a Network of the Association, under the guidance of the Council Engagement Committee. None of the benefits outlined in 9.2 shall be conferred until the group has been formally recognized by the Council. No such approval shall be granted unless the group agrees that:

- a) The mission of the Network shall be such that it enhances the mission of the Association;
- b) Upon dissolution, all property of the Network shall become the property of the Association;
- c) No function or program that has not first received joint approval of the Alumni Office and Alumni Association Council;
- d) No fundraising on behalf of the University shall be undertaken without the written approval of the University Alumni Office; and
- e) The Association and University shall be saved harmless from any act or omission of the Network, the occurrence of which may be unilaterally determined by any of the foregoing and as consequences of which the resolution approving the Network may be rescinded forthwith without notice.

8.2 Benefits to Networks

Networks sanctioned by the Association shall be awarded the following benefits:

- a) The right to use the name of the University and its Alumni Association;
- b) Access to Alumni Office staff for support;
- c) Access to reasonable resources and facilities of the Alumni Office; and
- d) Access to funding if available and in-kind support from the Alumni Association Council.

Schedule A: Council Term Rotation Correction Proposal

The following options can be utilized by the Council to correct the term rotation:

1. Subject to approval at the Annual General Meeting of Members, an existing Council Member's term, shall be extended by 1 year.

Implemented: There are 4 seats up for nomination, all 4 members whose term expires have served 4 years on the Council. Sean seeks to return for 2 years to correct the rotation, the Council approves Sean's return. Following elections, there are 4 newly appointed members. At the Annual General Meeting of Members, Sean is approved to return, there will now be 11 members on the Council.

2. At the next general elections, rather than 6 seats be open for nominations, only 5 seats will be offered. Opening up an extra seat for nomination, therefore having 11 members for a short period of time.

Implemented: There are 4 seats up for nomination, rather than offer 4 seats offer 5.

3. In the event that a Council Member from the greater year (6-year) group is unable to complete their term, an appointed Council Member shall fill the seat for the intervening year.
4. During the 6-year nominations, 1 Member shall be appointed for a 1-year term. 5 Council Members shall then be nominated for a 2-year term.
