

UNIVERSITY	Secretariat Runs Elections	# of Elections per Year	Timing of Elections	Provision for unfilled positions
Brock	yes	1	February - March	- unable to determine from website
Guelph	yes	1	annually during winter semester - by-election in Sept, if necessary	- unable to determine from website
Laurier	yes	1	annually, before first meeting of senate	- senate can request by-election to fill an unexpected vacancy
McMaster	yes	student positions = 2 faculty & staff positions = 1	student elections: Jan- Mar & Sept - Oct faculty & staff: March	- will hold by-election to fill mid-year staff & faculty vacancies
Queen's	depends	1	faculty & student elections run by Faculties & student societies - secretariat runs staff election in February	- unable to determine from website
Regina	yes	1	March	- will sometimes send out second call for nominations or leave role vacant
Ryerson	yes	1	February - March	- unable to determine from website
U of T	yes	1	nominations: 1 week in Jan voting: 2 weeks in Feb	- for senate, will re-open nominations at least once for unfilled positions - some bodies keep role vacant until next election
Waterloo	yes	1	February	- failure to nominate candidate to fill vacancy results in keeping position vacant until next annual election unless petitioned by relevant Faculty - no by-elections held during July 1 - Sept 15 & no undergraduate by-elections held from Apr 1 - July 1

Western	yes	1	February	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - when mid-year vacancy, senate decides whether to fill role - if senate decides to fill role, approach candidates who ran for position in last election - if cannot fill role in that way, based on faculty recommendation from ad hoc nominating committee
Windsor	yes	1 (for at-large positions)	at-large election held in March - Faculties run own elections for senate rep positions	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - for unfilled positions, will hold another election immediately following March election - if still unfilled, will remain vacant until next election
Winnipeg	yes	2	late spring for July 1 vacancies & late fall for Jan 1 vacancies	- respective Chair can recruit volunteers to fill unfilled positions
York	yes	1	spring	- unable to determine from website