PRESENTED BY: Steven Murphy, President & Vice-Chancellor

SUBJECT: Update - Senior Academic Administrator Searches

BACKGROUND/RATIONALE:

This update is In keeping with my commitment to provide regular updates to the governing bodies and the university community regarding the search for the Provost and Vice-President Academic and the Vice-President responsible for Research.

NEXT STEPS:

Search for the Provost and Vice-President Academic

The Search Committee, along with the search consultant, is in the process of finalizing the consultation dates for the university community, and will continue its work over the next few weeks regarding the advertisement for the posting.

Search for the Vice-President responsible for Research

The search committee will hold its first meeting in early November. We are in the process of determining a date for a special consultation session with Academic Council and this will be communicated in the coming days.

I will continue to provide updates regarding these two search activities to Academic Council at its regular meetings.
