The Committee reviewed 136 complete domestic applications for the major scholarship awards who met the grade qualification of 85% minimum based on completed and mid-term U/M level or equivalent courses.

Each qualified applicant was first read independently by three committee members and scored on an evaluation rubric. The top 25 scoring applications were then read by all seven evaluators and resulted in a ranking of these individuals and offers being made. Alternate offers of the scholarships were made to the next eligible candidates if the scholarship offers were declined.

A different Committee reviewed 57 complete international applications for the Global Leadership Scholarship who met the grade qualification of 85% minimum based on completed and mid-term U/M level or equivalent courses. Each qualified applicant was read independently by three committee members, scored based on an evaluation rubric and resulted in a ranking of these individuals and offers being made. The Global Leadership Award was offered to the next eligible candidates if the scholarship offer(s) were declined.
