

Common Registration Error Messages

When it comes to course registration, errors are common—you're not the only one that may receive an error message.

You got this! Conquer your course registration with these helpful steps:

Error message	Description	Action
Link error	This course requires registration in more than one section (e.g., lecture, lab and/or tutorial).	You must register for all sections of the course at the same time. Make note: Some lectures are linked to specific tutorials and labs.
Closed section	There are currently no seats available in this section. Other sections of this course may still have available seats.	If this is a mandatory course, contact your Academic Advisor . If this is an elective, you'll need to select a different one or check back later for availability.
Prerequisite error	The section you're trying to add requires a prerequisite course.	Contact your Academic Advisor for further assistance.
Missing corequisite	The section you're trying to add requires a co-requisite. You must register in both courses simultaneously.	Use the add/drop function on MyCampus to add all applicable CRNs at the same time, in each box.
Duplicate Course	You've already registered for another section of the course you're trying to add.	Ensure you're adding the right CRN. If you're trying to replace a previous section with a new one, you'll need to drop the previous one first.
Maximum hours exceeded	Your total number of credit hours exceeds the maximum number allowed for this term.	To inquire about adding more courses (course overload), contact your Academic Advisor .
Time conflict	The time of this section conflicts with another course in your schedule and cannot be added.	You'll need to choose a different section for this course, or for the one you previously added.
SR-student restrictions	There is a hold on your account preventing registration.	Contact the Office of the Registrar for assistance.
Major restrictions	This restriction occurs when a section has been reserved for specific majors.	You'll need to select a different section of the course that is compatible with your major. If no option is available, contact your Academic Advisor .
Reserve-closed	The available seats in the section are reserved.	Contact the Academic Advisor of the course you're trying to add.
College restriction	This restriction occurs when a course or section has been reserved for students in specific faculties.	You'll need to select a different section of the course that is compatible with your faculty. If no option is available, contact your Academic Advisor .
