

Maral Salek

Community Manager, BlancRide

Maral Salek was born and raised in Tehran. Shortly after graduating from law school she prepared to write the BAR exam, only to realize that practising law is not what she wanted to accomplish. After immigrating to Toronto, she decided to go back to school and pursue her passion of helping others. After obtaining her 2nd bachelor degree from York University and a Masters from Ryerson, she worked for a several law firms, women shelters and Not-For-Profits. In July of 2015 Maral took a chance and joined a technology start up as a Community Manager, and never looked back. In her free time, if she has any, Maral enjoys literature, film and dance.
