Explanation of Electives

BUSI Elective: A course in business, but outside of your major. For example – BUSI 1700U – Introduction to Entrepreneurship or BUSI 2000U – Collaborative Leadership. Students require a minimum of two BUSI electives.

General Elective: A course outside of business. For example – PSYC 1000U – Introduction to Psychology or SCIE 1920U – Introduction to Astronomy. Accounting students require a minimum of three general elective courses.

Open Elective: Can be a BUSI or general elective. If applicable, minor courses should be taken in these spots. Students may have up to two of these Open Electives consist of elective courses within their major.

Remember, it is your responsibility to ensure that you are aware of and have met the necessary degree requirements of both the program and the respective major. Please be sure to contact your academic advisor if you have any questions regarding your course selection. If you do not know who your advisor is, please email FBITadvising@uoit.ca to find out.
